

MEMBERSHIP IN THE LOUISIANA
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
1874 - 2008

Revised May, 2006

Louisiana House of Representatives

PREFACE

This publication is a result of research largely drawn from Journals of the Louisiana House of Representatives and Annual Reports of the Louisiana Secretary of State. Other information was obtained from the book, A Look at Louisiana's First Century: 1804-1903, by Leroy Willie, and used with the author's permission.

In 1877 the Republican and Democratic parties convened two separate legislatures in New Orleans. The Republican legislature lost strength as a result of President Ulysses S. Grant refusing to send military forces to back the Republican elected legislators. Many Republicans either changed party or simply decided to attend the Democratic legislature, thus resulting in quorum for the Democrats. Newly inaugurated president, Rutherford B. Hayes, withdrew all federal troops from Louisiana in April of 1877. This was the beginning of the end of the Reconstruction era in the state.

Membership lists for 1877 are based on the Journal for the 1877 Extraordinary Session. Information for the Regular Session is not available. Either the Journal was not published for that legislative session, or it has become a rare publication that cannot be found.

Members of the Orleans Parish delegation are listed by district number as well as political party from 1884 to 1916.

Additional information from the Louisiana public on the legislative membership is encouraged and invited by writing to:

<sup>52</sup> From territorial times, Louisiana was divided into counties. In 1807 the Orleans Territory was divided into 19 parishes, but they did not abolish the 12 original counties. From the original 19 parishes, there were another 37 parishes created. Some counties lost their names entirely when they were split and more than one new parish was established. In the early publications before 1880, it is difficult to tell if the writers refer to counties or parishes.

<sup>53</sup> The position of Speaker Pro Tempore in the Louisiana House of Representatives was created by House Resolution 1 of the 1972 Regular Session. House Resolution 1 provided for House Rule 6.1:

The House of Representatives shall elect a Speaker Pro Tempore who shall assist the Speaker of the House, at the discretion of the Speaker, and who shall have such other powers, duties and functions as may be prescribed by the laws of the State or the House of Representatives.

This resolution was adopted on the first day of the 1972 Regular Session and on the same date Mr. Raymond Laborde placed in nomination the name of Kenneth Leithman (seconded by Mr. Hainkel). Mr. Leithman was elected Speaker Pro Tempore by acclamation (House Journal May 8, 1972, p. 35).
